Ridgman Trophy This year's competition took place at Stowmarket, Suffolk. The test piece was 233 Stedman Caters. The home team were the winners with Ely DA in 2nd place. The LDG band were placed 6th. Well done to all the band who attended practices and travelled to Suffolk to represent their Guild.

RWNYC Good luck to all the young ringers travelling to Nottingham to take part in the national youth striking competition. This year two teams – the Poachers and the Gamekeepers will represent the Guild. Enjoy the experience.

News from the branches

Northern:

General ringing took place at Walesby for the Trinity Sunday Service and again following the first wedding to be celebrated at the old church for over 120 years.

Eastern: Ben Rothwell is continuing his attempt to ring a QP in each church featured in the current Guild calendar. This month's QP was at Gainsborough and was a 1st on 8 bells for Emma Williamson. The branch June F practice was at Friskney, Fishtoft and Freiston and included methods beginning with F. During a brief branch meeting one adult and 3 junior members were elected.

West Lindsey:

Half muffled general ringing took place before the funeral of Robin Heppenstall at All Saints Gainsborough. Handbells were rung during the Service, a combined CUG and ASCY band rang at QP of Stedman Triples afterwards and the bells of Lea were rung following his internment. Ringers came from all over the country on this very hot day to mark Robin's long and well lived life. A peal of Minor in hand was rung in his memory.

The branch held a successful striking competition with a very creditable 7 teams taking part. Stow was able to field 2 teams which included 3 ringers in their first competition. The Isle of Axholme band were the winners of the Bingham Cup with Messingham in 2nd place which was judged by Keith Butter and Jo Pearson. The refreshments were much appreciated on this hot afternoon. A QP was rung at Saxilby in memory of Pete Watson. A QP was rung at Tickhill and was 1st of Lincolnshire Major for Chris Rainthorpe.

Elloe:

A very successful and well attended meeting was held at Gedney where delicious refreshments were also provided. A peal of Gainsborough S Major was rung at Spalding in memory of Robin Heppenstall on the day of his funeral. Branch members were sorry to hear of the death of Owen Northwood, former TC of Quadring and regular ringer at Bicker and was branch RM for a number of years. He moved to Cumbria some years ago. QPs were rung in his memory at Moulton, Whaplode, Bicker and Quadring. A peal of Rutland was rung at Long Sutton and was 1st peal for 26 years for Julie Abbott, our recently appointed Membership Sec.

Southern

2 new methods were rung and named at Sproxton: The Hoppings Delight and Balmbray's Delight. Another peal at Sproxton of Criccieth Castle was 100th together for Keith Butter and Tony Walker. At Sempringham a new minimus method was rung: and named at 4.35am : Sempringham Solstice TP A handbell peal of Yorkshire Major was rung in memory of Robin Heppenstall. Over 70 branch and Guild members attended at Michael & Julie Coney's farmstead for another fabulous barbeque, and ringing on Beltone. £1000 was raised for the branch BRF. Thanks to Michael & Julie for hosting this once again. A lucky dip striking competition was held at Thurlby and judged by Keith Butter. Attendance was very low but those that were there had a good time and enjoyed the homemade cakes.

Central:

At Great Hale a QP of Grandsire Doubles was rung to celebrate Rev Stephen Huckle's 50 years as a vicar. A QP of Cambridge was rung at Balderton and was 1st of surprise for Jo Highfield and 250th QP for Owen Peters. A QP of 3 doubles methods was rung at Ewerby. It was 1st QP for young ringer Elizabeth White and 1st as cond for her brother Tom. Well done to them both. It was for the village fete, the 1st to have been held for many years. Another 1st QP was Sebastien Percevault who rang the treble to PBD at Welton. A QP was rung at Sutton cum Lound and was 1st S Major for David Curtis. 2 QPs were rung in memory of Robin Heppenstall – PBD at North Scarle and PBT at Washingborough which was a 1st of triples for Abigail Brown.
